Winners of the par event held 23/ 11 /03 were

A & B grade :- Tony O Brien + 10.

C & D grade :- Andrew Hilton + 6.

9 Holers :- Ted Szkuta.

Saturday competition :- Jon Hilton.

The big winner on that weekend was Billy Linton who finally took out some money from the Alpha –Bet sweep and Robin is pleased to announce it was first prize Billy and Bernie Sheridan had a great tussle for the money.

My first sighting that morning was Billy behind a cloud of smoke, one Crownie, a Vb and a Diet Coke alongside him on the putting green, Jon and Socks were helping him practise putting.

Ask Denise about her trick shot, hitting the red marker and another special happening Steph.beat the Champ, bet that news rocked Adelaide.

Another feature worth noting, after being rubbished for using his 1 wood on the par threes, Robin proceeded to beat all their good shots and win nearest the pin.

Winners of the Stroke event held 30th November were Jon Hilton.

9 Holers: - Tony Gaskell.

The real winner was the Presentation Night that knocked quite a few about, lack of sleep was the main excuse; not many 18 Holers played but the 9 Holers were out in full force; Tony Gaskell copped a roast for his non-attendance on the night.

The night was a huge success, the venue was ideal and proved the Clubrooms would have been too crowded, the food was excellent and plenty of it; Chris did a terrific job with the selection of trophies and the presenters were spot on. We had a guest comedian who got up and had a go; at least he was better than the Andrew/ Billy Show.

Quote of the night went to Billy; speaking of his wife “ I always listen to her.”

Runner-up was James Holmes Jun.; for not taking all the credit for David’s demise but suggesting a drink may have assisted.

Adam Cummaudo in a very moving speech, credited his C grade win to the magic properties of Crown Lagers, Adam cost many people a lot of money, They were betting he would not turn up, which is his usual form.

First sightings are very important and I was impressed with Craig Coffey’s tie; what a beauty.

Welcome back to Michael Belia, It is good to see an experienced Royal Park member return to the fold.

We have had a lot of fun the last few weeks with Robin’s Cup morning then the Book launch, Club championships and the Presentation night, but here is a reminder.

Annual Fees are now due and payable.
