9 holers Champion.. Jack Breen.

Medal of Medalists;- Laclan Winnall.

Congratulations to all the winners and to all the players that played in the Championships. Four weeks is a long time to stay focussed.

Just a few words about the winners, Lachlan has had an amazing few weeks, winning at his Saturday club and winning every thing on the Sunday but we have found a weakness, he played last Tuesday and did not win. A special mention to the proud parents Elizabeth and Steve who do all the parental duties.

Colin Chua has shown what hard work and practice can do, there would not be many days that Colin misses out on his Royal Park training, If he is not there he has a part time job as a taxi driver between Parkville and the city.

Gary [mullet] Chappell works the graveyard shifts but is Kylie's favourite Comedian and Blues supporter, did she win her tournament also?

Chris Jovanovic battled injury and non-stop abuse and talk from his mate David but was still good enough to win. The two mates with a little help from Colin C. celebrated on Tuesday by drinking some mysterious substance poured into Coke cans . James Holmes a worthy winner of the Junior event and a real gentleman and so is Jack Breen, winner of the 9 holers, Jack would not have been confident going into the final round. A fine effort by young Brendan Goldsmith who was runner up in C grade and the Juniors.

It is time to welcome the whole Goldsmith family to Royal Park, Michelle and Robert And the children, Joshua, Brendan and Shenae, dad Robert is a frustrated golfer who cannot get off work to play.

Tuesday we had Robin's Alpha-bet sweep tournament and the winner was; yes, you guessed it; ROBIN HAMILTON who won on a countback from Sam Cummaudo and myself. To say that Robin was pleased is an understatement; he now joins some very famous golfing names on that trophy.

Bronwyn Evans won the non-members trophy and showed us males how to play Seems most of the males were more intent on throwing clubs

The turn-up was poor but we had a great morning with lots to eat. Thanks must go to Robin and Margaret for the food, David McCord for his raffle prize and selling the tickets, John Hodges and Steph. for the raffle prizes, Chris J. and Colin C. for organising the Cup sweeps until the Coke and firewater set in, Graham B for his supervision, Sam C for doing the book [result book not a book on the Cup] and the big bloke behind the bar.

Some famous people paid us a visit, Kevin Anderson, Italo Marcantonio, two Cummaudo boys.

Thanks to Denise Hilton for the beautiful COLLAGE that will become a feature and talking point in our clubrooms.

Darren is still scaring young children with that haircut

The correct spelling is Michael Kelty.

Leader in the Alpha-bet sweep is Sam Cummaudo and last position is being fought out between Chris Maragos and Tony O'Brien.
