The festive season has been completed with only a few casualties; Richard G spent a few days in hospital, without his teeth, Tony McMahon is trying to tell everyone his gout was caused by eating tomatoes.

First event for 2006 was the Stableford-Chook run & the winner was :-

Tony O'Brien [10] 43 points. Tony's only problem How do you cook a chook?
9-hole competition winner was Len Croke [22] 19 points. Runner-up to Len was Phil McCartney who also won the N.A.G.A. award ???

8 /1/06 Par. Winners were A&B grade: - Chris Jovanovic [25] + 5

9 holers :- Phil. McCartney. [27] + 2.

Phil's first win in the big time but he has promised his thousands of fans "It will not be his last".

15/1/06 Presidents vs Captains day. Stableford. Event.

A & B grade :- Brendan Moloney. [20] 42 points.

9 holers :- Jack Breen. [13] 20 points.

The acting President would like to thank our team for the dedication, teamwork & guts they showed in thrashing the Captain's team.

The first Thursday twilight event was won by Ian Fyfe, who has the problem of cooking Roast Chook with Haggis, or is it the other way around? This week's winner was Rob. Anderson; after all the hassles, there are no more Chook prizes but winners will still be rewarded

The first Monthly Medals were played on 22/1 & Winners were :-

A & B grade :- Brendan Moloney. 82 [19] 63

9 Holers :- Tom Lawless. 45 [11] 34.

Brendan ignored his new handicap to record his second win in a row, beating Con Kapetanakis in a play off, Tom also won a play off against Tony Gaskell, thanks to Ted Szkuta & Haydn Donahue for acting as referees.

A good turn out considering the extreme heat, some outstanding feats but none better than Barry Coley's who dashed off the Cairo plane to play 18 holes with us & make a speech & then went to see members of his family. Welcome back Barry from all of us.

We don't like publishing golf hints but these are too good to keep to myself.

1st. Stop hitting gay fades by Brendan Moloney. 2nd. Tony O'B for more hip rotation whilst putting "eat more fish" from Andrew Dovey.

Jack Breen awarded Fashions on the course again to Len Croke, the white & black socks won for Len. Denise tried hard, went home & changed 3 times.

We have had our 1st b.b.q. for 2006 & what else can this man do? John Duffy stepped up & was the b.b.q. cook & no complaints.

We did miss our three new Juniors, Ricky, Daniel & Mark.

Alpha-Bet sweep No.44 is off & running with Len Croke off to an early lead with Denise 2nd. & 7 punters have not had a winner yet & 7 have not paid yet.

Raffle winners were Tom Lawless, Len Croke & Billy Linton.
