19th March Par :- A & B grade :- Daniel Baldasso. [31] + 5

9 Holers :- Len Croke [11] + 2

Congratulations to Daniel on his first big win. He won in a count back from Bruce Arrowsmith & Gary Chappell the Par expert.

Congratulations also to Len Croke who recovered well from a very hectic St. Patrick's Day.

Chris J was pleased with his 12 on the last hole but Socks beat him with 14 & we have not seen him since. We will not mention Con Kapetanakis's Par score last Sunday.

Graham Bryant has had a birthday this month & purchased himself a few pairs of white socks; keep the Malteesers up to us at the Committee meetings please.

Thanks Richard Ghiller for your work on our Shields, one Lady was thrilled to see her name on one.

The Junior clinics have been a success; the numbers have increased each week, Tony O'Brien, Michael Lawn & Graham Bryant have been helped by Len Croke, Barry Coley, Billy Linton, Jon & Denise Hilton & yours truly. Let's hope we can now retain some of the Juniors.

Nice to see two old mates having a hit together, Ken Pridham invited Max "Norman" to be his guest, another oldie but a goodie made a social visit "Waxy".

Browyn's new handbag has a lot of secret compartments, you could even lose your keys in them.

Headlines in the Stawell Advertiser. "Peter McLeod wins scratch event". Tony Failla would like it known, he won the Veterans event last Thursday.

Seen this week doing some pre Medal training were Sandro Basile, Colin Chua, Chris. Jovanovic, Jim Murphy, Tony McMahon, Richard Ghiller & Tony Failla & you can bet Daniel, Mark & Ricky Baldasso would have had a hit this week in between soccer & tennis. Jon & Denise are training Interstate. The Alpha- Bet sweep was won by Sam Cummaudo with Michael Lawn second & a tie for last between Kevin Anderson & Campbell Gibson.
