The Newsletter always up to date has decided to introduce / interview some of our juniors. The first player to get the treatment is Oliver Briggs aged 10 & our Youngest player. He lives at home [still] & barracks for the Brisbane Lions. No nickname ?? The 8 iron is his favourite club & the shot he will always remember is out of a bunker into the hole on the 4th. Oliver's favourite golfer is Barry Coley & when asked did he like his driver, he said, "Yes, Mum is terrific."

Robin's Alpha- Bet sweep finishes this week with Mick Kelty the leader & Graham Bryant & Barry Coley equal last.

Nice to see two players make a comeback, one who gives us mere males a bad name because he cooks every meal at home & the other is the off spinner from Madras.

Ric Germaine played his first 9 holes & Jim Murphy took him under his wing & said Ric can hit a ball.

To those that missed his big announcement, Socks has purchased one of our new fab. Club shirts, on lay-by of course.

Fund Raising Day. Give Robin a break, please bring back those Raffle books & put your name down if you are playing on the day. All this is going to help us with the organisation & catering.
