Par A & B grade :- Oliver Briggs [31] + 5
9 Holers :- Greg Gill [20] + 1

I am certain Oliver would have to be our youngest ever winner & it sure pays to be interviewed by the Newsletter.

Greg Gill won under trying conditions, having to keep the Match play semi-finalists apart.

Jack Breen beat Bernie Convery & will play Julie McAllister in the final.

Mick Kelty won the Alpha-bet sweep with Graham Bryant & Barry Coley sharing last place. & don't worry, the next sweep will be starting shortly. John Duffy won the attendance voucher [again].

The Miles Walsh Interview.

Miles is 16 & attends St Kevin's, his address is home, his joke, not mine. He barracks for Geelong & his favourite sportsman is Paul Chapman & favourite golfer is Stuart Appelby. The Driver is his choice of clubs & a shot he remembers is a second Shot 9 iron onto the green on our 9th hole.

Since joining Royal Park his new hobby is winning the attendance voucher. [3 in a row]

“Bring a guest day.” Stroke.A & B grade :- Barry Coley [10] 58 nett.

9 Holers :- Phil McCartney [14] 27 nett.

The day went very well, thanks to those that spent a few dollars & those that lent a hand to help Robin [Go Strathmore] I do not like picking out people for special mentions but Jack Breen rates very highly for his bookwork & NAB for the Nearest the pins & Birdie prizes & unless you have hours to spare, don't ask Jack about his NTP in on the first.

Another great effort was the cooking by Jim Murphy & his poor guest Don, Jim said he does not care if he never sees another Snag or Ham steak again & we will have to pay big money next year to get Don back again.

Dave McCoid was upset, he was OK to run a raffle but we gave him a day off, what a fine looking chap David's brother is, very brainy & a good golfer. It is sad to see one person have all the talent in a family.

Yes. We did play some golf too. Barry & Phil were very happy winners.

What about Phil's score? Sorry but being a fellow Bulldog supporter won't save you from the wicked Handicapper.

Oliver Briggs had a good excuse for leaving early. He had to make his First Holy Communion. It is only 60 years since I made mine.

Graham Bryant finally made his big comeback. Rob Ternes celebrated his 60th birthday at the weekend. Well done Rob.

Billy Barrat missed his first All-rounders Game for years, not a bad record.

We do have a few problems ; why is Sam Cummaudo drinking water after his round ?

I vowed I would not mention Gary Chappell's haircut so no mention.

There is a fine looking, rich, brainy barman who has a 9th hole phobia.

He has had an Airy there the last two Sundays. HELP.

Our golf results are published every Monday in the Herald Sun & the Age.
