Happy New Year.

The first winners for 2007 were :-

7th January. Par. A & B Grade :- Anthony Baldasso. [18] + 5

9 holers :- John Duffy. [12] + 2

Thursday twilight comp. Sam Ward. [18] 35.

January 14th. Stableford. Presidents vs. Captains day, allegedly won by the Captain's team. The President's team are considering appealing to the High Court of Aust, after all, the captain awarded all the prizes & he supervised the result book.

A & B Grade :- Michael Belia. [14] 43 pts

9 Holers :- Daniel Baldasso [9] 21 pts.won on a countback from John Duffy.

We thought Daniel's caddy James was the winning factor. Well done James.

Not to be outdone by his little brother, Mark Baldasso had an eagle on the 3rd.

Denise Hilton won the attendance draw, will pay for a few more bricks on the Tassie Mansion. Great combined effort from Denise, Jon & Billy on the Syllabus, please obtain your copy, study it & allow it to become your Thursday bible.

We welcomed back Jane, Justine, and Julie, Tony Gaskell, Alex Sneddon, Tim Kirley & of course Robin & Tony plus Bronwyn & her Bali tan.

Gary Chappell has constantly been in touch from Q/land with 100's of photos.

Thanks to Jim Murphy for looking after the catering & feeding of the hungry golfers. A fine effort Jim. Thanks also Graham Bryant who volunteered to be barman in my absence.

Pedestrians beware: Richard Ghiller has purchased a Rolls Royce motorised vehicle for his darling Rosemary but sadly she cannot get behind the wheel, Richard has it at golf all the time & as we all know his golf drives & the vehicle will always be up the middle.

Thanks Rosemary for keeping the Alpha-Bet up to date for Robin.

Len Oates is well in front with one week remaining, Max Norman is last.

Another vehicle problem: The Hiltons driving very slowly around Parkville in the new vehicle. Bulldog 1 is the number plate.

We have achieved some bragging rights lately with Santo Caruso & Brendan Moloney being interviewed on S E N 1116 by THE Kevin Bartlett.

Santo is our book sponsor & he runs Melbourne Sports Books 80 Flinders St Melbourne & he has a regular spot/ gig on 1116.

Brendan spoke about the book he hopes to have published. He wants to hitchhike Australia with his golf clubs & toothbrush & write about his experiences & the courses he plays.

The next few weeks will be hectic, Monthly Medal this week, the following Sunday is the first round of Junior pennant at home then Friday 2nd February is TRIVIA NIGHT. We need helpers for all events.

My nomination for best quote of 2006.

“ I cannot not play well today because of my full bladder.”
