7 / 12/ 08 Gerry McManus Memorial Trophy. Stableford.

Winners were :- A Grade David Gainsford. [22] 42 points.

9 Holers John Duffy. [10] 20 points

What a busy day for David, great round of golf then volunteered to do the result book
John Duffy had a big day also, won back to back.

14/ 12 / 08. COMPLETE AND UTTER WASH-OUT.

4 PLAYERS PLAYED THE FIRST AND 9th.

21 / 12 / 08.

Stroke Winners were :- A Grade :- Peter McLeod. [12] 59

9 Holers :- Jack Breen. [5] 31.5

We will have to check the "Stawell" Herald to check out how Peter and Rob Ternes score for the next few weeks.

The old saying came true again "Nobody beats Jack Breen on a count back"

Bernie Convery ruined my joke by playing last Sunday; I was going to call him John Daly, he never plays on a Sunday either.

Well-done Bernie and your helper Peter McLeod on the Thursday night comp.

There was one "Pure Blonde" left in the COMMUNITY fridge and Graham
Bryant has a joke to tell about it.

Big news Mr.Linton "Pants has a new pair".

We have opposed it for years but he has beaten us. "The Yankee Pom"
Denis Sweetnam has finally been accepted as an Aussie, if this wasn't a family
Newsletter I'd say "Welcome, you Aussie B."

Colin Chua is pleased to announce all his Singapore mates, "the Class of 1960" have returned to their homes ;; after drying out Colin will be back chipping and putting better than ever.

Gary Chappell is returning after injury, Warren Prior is keen to get Gary to test his injury on the Flag run.

What happens to Ric Germaine ? He plays the Championships then goes missing, returns to pick up a trophy then disappears again.

Mat Alsop and Tom Lawless paid us a visit.

Christopher Wright was the best junior player again.

WANTED WORKERS TO ASSIST THE COOK, BUTTER SOME BREAD, SERVE THE GROG, DO THE RESULT BOOK AND CLEAN UP BEFORE WE LEAVE.

TOO MUCH WORK IS LEFT FOR THE SAME PEOPLE EVERY WEEK.

Have a happy, good golfing 2009

From all reports, the farewell to Mat. Lyneham was a great day,
A lot of good [great] shots were taken, but did Mat. take "Bojangles " with him.
